Doggone Connection is a holistic, reward-based behavior training program.

The above starting dates are orientation times to introduce you to our 6-week/1 hour sessions. Attendance at the orientation is required to participate in the remaining 5 weeks with your dog. Please call 298-0992 to register. Classes fill-up early and attendance is limited.

There is no commitment to continue after the orientation, but if you choose to continue with us the cost is:

$105.00 - If the dog was adopted from a breeder, pet store or newspaper ad.

$85.00 – If the dog was adopted from a humane society, shelter, rescue org or the street.

$75.00 – If the dog was acquired from a city animal care and control division.

$60.00 - If you have an immediate family member on active duty in the armed services.

No charge - If you are fostering a dog for a rescue group or are a shelter employee.
